

TICKENS SENTINEL.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Mamie Allgood is at home this week on a short vacation.

Miss Cora Bowen returned last Monday from attending the Williams-on Female College.

Uncle Ephraim Gilstrap's many friends will regret to learn that he was quite sick last week. He is out again.

The poultry raisers owe Capt. H. C. Grady a chicken pie. Last Monday he killed a hawk measuring four feet from tip to tip.

W. M. Hagood & Co., last week bought ninety six bales of cotton in one lot, from J. S. Wilson and J. F. Hendricks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Capehart returned last week from an extended visit to relatives and friends in North Carolina and Spartanburg.

J. A. Steel has begun business on his own account, next door to the People's Bank, in Greenville. He is a prompt and reliable watch maker.

Pickens county has fifty-three school districts and consequently 159 public school trustees. Young America's educational interests will be well cared for.

R. A. Bowen received last Friday official notice of his appointment as postmaster at Pickens. He will take charge as soon as his bond is approved.

Rev. John Attaway was in town Monday morning, shaking hands with his old friends. On Sabbath before he met his appointments at New Hope and New Friendship.

Messrs Bruce and Carey have greatly improved the looks of their lot on Main street, in the "burnt district," by clearing it off and putting a neat and substantial fence around it.

Any boy desiring to enter Clemson College can still get a permit by appearing before the school commission at any time before the 15th of February. There is still one vacancy for this county, which is entitled to ten in all.

Last Friday, F. V. Clayton, by request and agreement of the devisees of Mr. J. A. Boggs, deceased, divided the land which was bequeathed to them as tenants in common. No place left for fees of lawyers and court officers in the settlement of this estate.

The colored patrons of Wolf Creek school district will please meet the trustees of said district at Pickens on the 17th inst. at 10 a. m. for the purpose of receiving certificates of transfer for their children to other school districts. W. B. Allgood, chairman.

The sales last Monday were as follows: In Crane vs. Miles et al., 100 acres of land was sold to J. E. Boggs for $312; 42 acres to C. L. Hollingsworth for $390. In C. T. Hutchins et al. vs. J. B. Clyde et al., 55 acres was sold to C. T. Hutchins for $875.

Rev. G. R. Schaffer preached an interesting sermon in the Methodist church last Sabbath, from the text, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way: even by taking heed thereto according to thy word." We were sorry all the young men were not present to hear it.

A private letter from Atlanta states that Freeman Jolly's wife and oldest daughter died a short time ago with in a day of each other. Mrs. Jolly will be remembered was the oldest daughter of the late Cyrus Hamilton. They have resided for sometime in Franklin county, Ga.

Owing to some delay in receiving our new dress of artistic job type, a good deal of work in that department did not reach our customers on time this week—as we wish to give them the best of everything. We now have one of the finest equipped printing offices in this part of the State, and all work in the future will be done with neatness and dispatch.

We notice that the Journal is calling on its correspondents for communications. We would like to do the same for THE SENTINEL. Much value is added to each edition by having four or five newsy letters from different points in the county. We are especially pleased with the leads from Central, but we will have to go down and look up our scribbles.

On the night of the 31st, Mike Whitmore, who lives near Ebenezer church, on the Greenville side of the Saluda, found his barn on fire. It was about 9 o'clock at night, and nothing was saved from the fire except the live stock. The loss is about $300, and it was the only house he had not insured. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary or a rat, as it began near a door not used at this time of the year.

A very necessary and desirable improvement was made last week in the Shadow Ford road, near Mr. F. C. Parsons' place. Mr. Parsons contributed largely to the prosecution and speedy completion of the work, by furnishing seven hands one day and eight hands and a mule the next day, all of which was highly appreciated by those whose duty it was to put the mile of new road in a condition to be traveled.

Acker, of Anderson county, and Scraggs, of Newberry county, who were captured by W. J. Runk last week and committed to jail in Pickens, have not given bond. The ox team was turned over to raiding deputy Ensign, and will be sold at Easley as confiscated property, if it should be found to be the property of the prisoners. It has been claimed by Mr. Summers. They were hauling about thirty-six gallons of good corn whiskey.

The Journal had a piece in it last week about Gov. Tillman. J. D. Aiken has been appointed postmaster at Central, and Miss Anita D. Ambler at Amblers.

You may expect some weather this month. A warm December generally precedes a cold February.

A farmer never catches a cold from breaking the ice and throwing the mud out of his ditches.

The Acts of 1893 have been received, and it is thought that the new Code will be out about the 1st of April.

Our good friend, J. W. Major and his interesting family, have moved to a valuable farm near Grove Station, Greenville county.

W. W. White is book-keeper in the Bank of Anderson. He has had much experience in book-keeping and is quite an acquisition to that institution.

Two dispensary cases were heard by Justice Davis, of Greenville, last week. One defendant was acquitted and the other convicted and put up for thirty days.

Daniel Baldwin, of Sunny Dale, was reported in a dying condition last Thursday. A telegram was sent to his son, Tank Baldwin, at Central, but he was absent.

Judge Augustine Seymore, of North Carolina, has been designated by Circuit Judge Simonton to hold the ensuing term of the United States court at Greenville, the term beginning last Monday.

The town council will, in a short time, put up several more racks and pitching posts. Frequently the number of horsemen and teams in town at the same time makes it inconvenient to find places for the steeds.

The palmetto is not only on all our whiskey bottles, but is also on the summonses and liens and mortgages, printed by Shannon & Co., of Greenville. These gentlemen seem not to know that the palmetto has been copyrighted by the State of South Carolina.

Clemson College has been authorized to assist Pickens and Oconee counties in the purchase of Ravenel's bridge if the price does not exceed $1,500. Clemson and Oconee need it much worse than Pickens county. The counties can build a good bridge in a better place.

Larkin Hughes is now sixty-seven years old, but that did not keep him from going into the woods the other morning to show a negro how to maul rails and toss a cat about. He has not been so young since. He was in town soon after, leaning on his trusty walking stick.

Several have come in with the $1.50 and availed themselves of the rare opportunity of getting two good papers for the price of one. THE SENTINEL and the Atlanta Weekly Constitution. Just bring your money on and hand it to Eugene Alexander and the two papers will come promptly each week.

Wm. Chandler, who resides on the old Ferguson place, near Pickens, is the champion musk rat catcher of the county. He relieved his traps Friday morning of one large mink and two rats. He stated to a SENTINEL man that he had caught over 100 of these troublesome animals, on Town Creek, since October.

Messrs J. L. Lewis, J. C. Jennings and L. C. Thornley, on the night of the 31st, raided a distillery on the waters of Crow Creek, captured a still and seventy-five gallons of singlings, overthrew two stands of beer and two tubs of mash, and routed all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging.

The Greenville News, a few days ago, recalled a comical incident of a serious tragedy. The mob had just lynched a white man in Spartanburg, when one said to an old negro who had been looking on: "You had better keep quiet about this affair." "Yes, boss, I will," replied the negro. "I think you're not 'im off'nighlylight."

Rev. T. C. O'Dell writes the Georgetown Times that he has just had the pleasure of posing at the objective end of a magnificent pounding gotten up by the good people of his church. His many friends in the Pendleton Circuit will be glad to know that this good brother is delighted with his new appointment. But he is like the old family horse, he will work well anywhere.

The poll tax delinquents are apportioned among the townships as follows: Easley 76, Liberty 54, Central 68, Hurricane 16, Pickens 23, Duncanson 23, Pumpkintown 3, Eastato 25. It will be seen that Pumpkintown takes the blue ribbon for paying poll tax. Including the polls there are something over 300 delinquents in the county. This is a good showing and speaks well for the tax payers generally.

Sam Jamison, colored, who was "fatally" shot about a month ago, was able to attend Trial Justice Cureton's court last Friday and give his testimony against Wm. Ferguson for shooting him and for carrying concealed weapons. The information as to concealed weapons was dismissed for want of testimony to show that the pistol was concealed. The defendant gave bond in the sum of $3.00 for his appearance at court to answer to the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill Sam Jamison. Sam seems to be literally one man who is not worth the powder and lead it would take to kill him, as 99 men out of 100, shot as he was, would have died. The defendant was represented by J. P. Carey.

Dispensary Blood.

W. B. Metz, the man who shot and killed Clark a few years ago in Columbia, and who defied Tillman and his constables on the fair grounds last November, was shot and probably fatally wounded by Davis Miller, a horse drover from North Carolina, on February 3.

HAGOOD, BRUCE & CO.'S ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1894.

To begin with, we want to thank our friends for their liberal trade and prompt settlements during the past season. We have never had better collections. There seems to be a disposition among the most of our customers to settle their accounts. We appreciate such trade, and propose to do all we can for them this year. The few who have stood back, or have been in some way hindered from paying us, we again urge to come forward at once and do their best for us. We need your help, and you may need ours later. Pay us what you can and give your note for the balance.

BARGAINS.

We have some Bargains to offer in Groceries. The Best Coffee and Flour to be had anywhere. A full assortment of Plows, Plow Stocks, Plow Gear, Hoes and other Plantation Tools. We have bought these goods lower than usual and will sell them accordingly. Lots of corn and seed oats for sale. Come to see us.
